

Police report

By Diane Upchurch

Feb. 15 – A Lindo Lane woman said she dialed 911 in error. If you dial 911 in error, please stay on the line and let the dispatcher know there is no emergency. Otherwise, officers will come to your door to ascertain the nature of your emergency.

A Barcelona Way man said he and his wife felt their house was trembling. Their vibrating bed had gone haywire and was vibrating after it had been turned off.

Feb. 16 – A Libre Circle man said there was a car parked in a lot on Calella Road for over two weeks. The owner could traced back to a P.O. Box. The car will be towed out of the lot.

An Alina Lane couple argued over going to the hospital. One of them called the police about the disturbance but would not confess who had called and now preferred to settle their argument on their own.

Sally McKittrick was cited for careless and prohibited driving when she pulled her car out onto DeSoto Boulevard from Carmona Road and into the line of traffic. The other driver was taken to the hospital for injuries sustained in the accident when her car hit McKittrick's car.

Feb. 17 – A Sonora Way woman said the sun blinded her, causing her to drive her car off the side of the roadway and hit a sign. The car sustained approximately $2,000 in damages. Replacement of the sign will cost approximately $100.

A heavily accented man called an Alina Lane woman and told her she won $250,000. First, she was supposed to send him $699 through Western Union in order to collect her money from UPS in Jamaica, Wis. He told her to call 876-627-2444 to get the money. Luckily, the woman called the police instead of paying to be scammed.

A Petrel Way woman said an Abaron Place man was hitchhiking on Santa Maria Road.

A Valencia Way woman said a Cooper Concrete truck was eliminating concrete on her road. The driver was rinsing his truck, no concrete was eliminated from the truck.

Feb. 18 – A Cantalejo Lane woman said there was a barking dog at a nearby residence. Officers saw the dog in a screened porch. No one was home. A business card was left in reference to the complaint.

A South Pego Way man said there was a damaged bicycle on the walking trail near Calella Road and Pego Way for over a week. Officers took the bike back to the police station garage.

A process server with all the proper documentation was allowed to serve several people in the Village.

Feb. 19 – A Badalona Circle man said his foster child did not want to be relocated by her case worker so she ran away.

A Cifuentes Way woman said there was damage to her pontoon boat stored at Balboa Marina. She said the metal railing on the side of the boat was bent and there was a small tear in the boat cover. The marina owner said the damage may have been caused by the weather.

Feb. 20 – A Camello Lane woman said she found a bag full of animal remains, she thought they were deer. Animal Control was contacted.

A Largo Drive woman said there was a raccoon at the front of her home she was unable to chase away. The raccoon was not there when police arrived.

An Ona Lane man said an apartment cleaner was using water from another unit without permission. The cleaner did not have a work pass and was escorted from the Village.